

FBI agent Denise Stemen said in an affidavit that Lowe 's alerted the FBI recently that intruders had broken into its computer at company headquarters in North Carolina , altered its computer programs and illegally intercepted credit card transactions .