

The memo, written by Marc Allen Connelly (who was general counsel to the funeral services commission at the time) and sent to Dick McNeil (the Bush - appointed chairman of the funeral commission) stated that Connelly " received information " from Texas state officials that two of the funeral commissioners worked for SCI