

pair240_T_s1.dot:

Helena Brighton , an attorney for Eliza May who served as executive director of the Texas Funeral Services Commission - the state agency that regulates the funeral business - claimed that she was fired from her state job because she raised questions about SCI .