

A massive polio immunization drive is under way in more than 20 nations of West and Central Africa , but in Cote d'Ivoire violence has forced a postponement of the vaccination campaign , the Global Polio Eradication Initiative (GPEI) announced November 18 .