

The lion 's share of this traffic comes from Angola , where diamonds from the area controlled by UNITA (National Union for the Total Independence of Angola) rebels are subject to an embargo