

Referring to the April 2 car bomb explosion perpetrated in Santa Tecla , the FMLN - FDR claimed responsibility for the attack in a communique , and said that it was " an action aimed directly at the police " and that " they regret the death of a civilian , " but they did not mention compensation for the relatives .