

Since 1974, Cyprus has been divided, de facto, into the government - controlled southern two - thirds of the island and the Turkish - Cypriot northern one - third.